Outcome Report
An Internship Awareness Workshop was organised by the IGAC Cell of West Guwahati Commerce College in collaboration with Assam Electronics Development Corporation Ltd. (AMTRON - A Govt. of Assam Undertaking) on 30th April 2025 at 12 Noon in the College Conference Hall. The event aimed to inform and guide students about the importance of internships in enhancing their academic and professional development.

The workshop was attended by 87 students, primarily from the 4th Semester Students. Faculty members and co-ordinator of Internship Committee along with the members also participated.

The session started with a warm welcome by the IGAC Co-ordinator. After that, the expert speakers, Mr. Lochan Borah and Ms. Shanima Das from Amtron, shared their valuable insights about internship experiences. They explained the different platforms and procedures that students can use to find internships. Towards the end, a question and answer session was held where students got the chance to ask questions and clear their doubts.

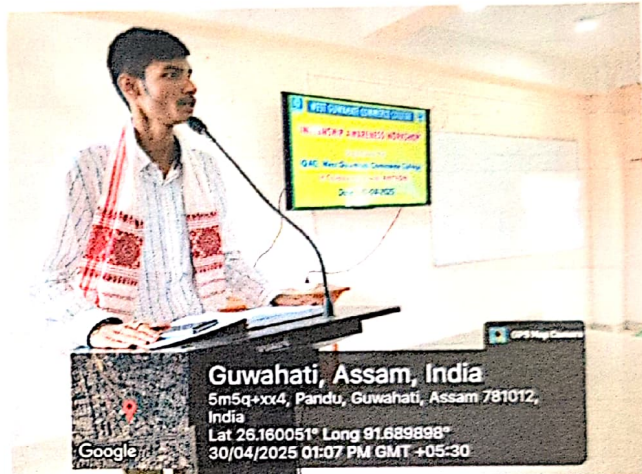

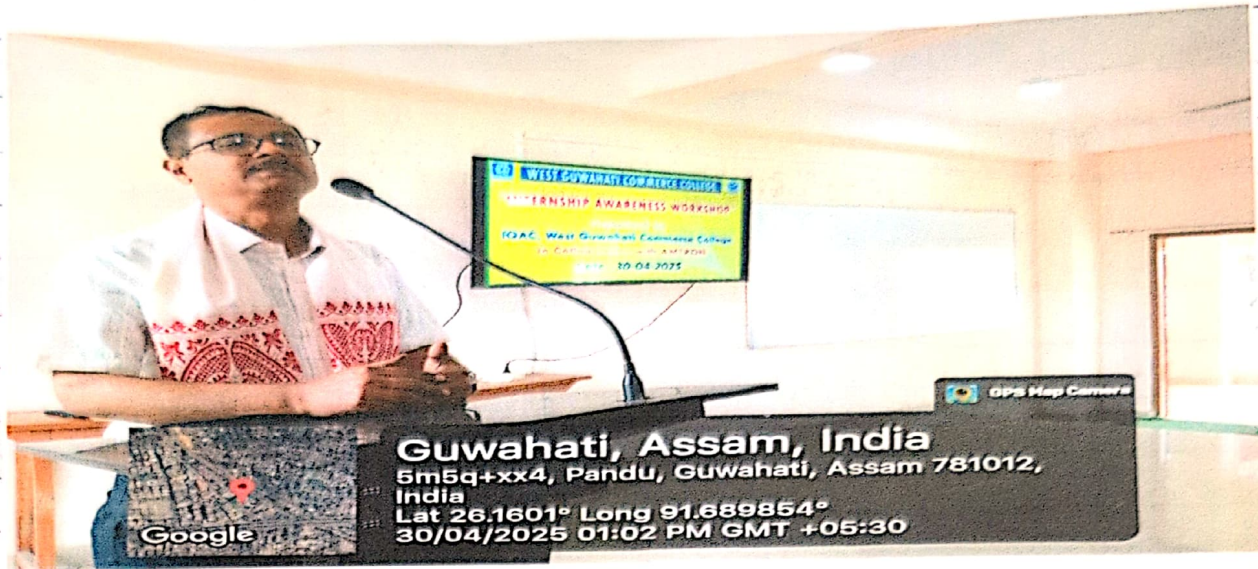

The session helped students clearly understand the importance of internships and the opportunities available to them. It sparked more interest among students in applying for internships. Overall, the session encouraged students to take initiative and gain practical experience along with their regular studies.

The workshop was highly informative and well received by the students. It successfully fulfilled its objectives of raising awareness about internships and motivating students to actively seek such opportunities.
