On Felicitation Programme for H.S Passout Students

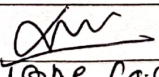

A felicitation programme was organised on 13th May, 2025 to honour the students of H.S 2nd Year (2024-25) batch who successfully passed their examinations. The event aimed to recognise the hard work, dedication and achievements of the students and to encourage them to pursue future academic and career goals with enthusiasm.

The programme began with a welcome speech by our Principal Dr. Dipen Barbaruah, followed by words of encouragement and appreciation from several teachers. A total of 16 teachers were present at the event, including the Principal who played a key role in the felicitation ceremony.

During the programme, 49 students were felicitated with a traditional Gamucha and a certificate of Appreciation, handed over by the Principal. The tokens of appreciation symbolized the institution's pride in its students' accomplishments and its support for their continued success.

The event concluded with a group photo session and refreshments for all attendees. It was a memorable day for both students and teachers, filled with joy, pride and encouragement for the future.
