Report on

Induction cum Bridge Course Programme. 2025

For B.Com. 1st Semester students

To ensure a smooth academic and emotional transition for the newly admitted B.Com 1st semester students, an induction cum bridge course programme was organised by the IQAC, West Jyoti Bahadri Commerce College, from 1st to 4th August 2025 in the college conference room. The programme aimed to familiarise students with the academic environment, bridge the gap between school and college education, and introduce key aspects of the B.Com curriculum.

Day 1 (1st August 2025):

The programme began with a warm welcome address by the Principal, Dr. Dipen Beg Baruah, who emphasised academic discipline and holistic development. This was followed by the introduction of faculty members and an overview of the B.Com programme, including course structure, examination patterns, and institutional policies.

Day 2 (2nd August 2025):

- Basics of Commerce and Accounting: Conducted by Mr. Dipak Jaim, Assistant Professor, Department of Accountancy, the session covered the definition, scope, and importance of commerce, along with an introduction to basic accounting principles and key terminologies.

- Soft Skills and Study Techniques: Led by Ms. Rabhani Retha Basman, Assistant Professor, Department of English, this session focused on time management, effective note-taking, and presentation skills.

Day 3 (4th August 2025):

- Introduction to Economics and Business Environment: Delivered by Mrs. Anshita Choudhury, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics. The session explained basic economic concepts, distinguished between micro and macroeconomics, and gave an overview of the Indian business environment, highlighting recent trends and challenges.

The programme concluded with a Valedictory session, where students shared positive feedback and reflections. A vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Iva Devi, IQAC coordinator, appreciating the contributions of faculty, staff, and students.
