

34th Foundation Day of West Guwahati Commerce College.

The 34th Foundation Day of West Guwahati Commerce College, Baripara, Maligaon Pandu, located in the western part of Guwahati under the Talukbari Legislative Constituency, was celebrated today, 10th August, with great enthusiasm.

The day began with the hoisting of the college flag by the Principal, Dr. Dipen Bezbaruah. The College Anthem, composed by the late academic and eminent contributor to literature and culture, Professor Birinchi Kumar Medhi was performed on the occasion by the students.

The open meeting was presided over by Dr. Tejotish Goswami, President of the Governing Body of West Guwahati Commerce College. In his welcome address, the Principal of the College Dr. Dipen Bezbaruah extended warm greetings to all. The principal expressed his views on upliftment of academics, IT cell and infrastructural development of the college. Speaking at the meeting, Shri Adhir Chandra Das, Social Worker, who played a pioneering role in the establishment of the college, shared his experiences and highlighted the positive aspects and significance of founding the institution.

Founding faculty members, eminent essayists on socio-economic issues, and poet Shri Samindra Huzuri also delivered an address. The President of alumni association Sri Kamal Chandra Kalita and Titu expressed their views regarding the overall development of the college. The vice-principals of the college Sri Shabananda Dutta, senior faculty members Shri Harindra Kumar Nath and Dr. Ira Devi recalled cherished memories of the college's journey on this auspicious day. In his presidential speech, Dr. Tyotish Goswami, who has served the college successively as a teacher for several years as Principal and presently as President of the Governing Body, emphasized aligning educational, intellectual, literary, cultural, and social responsibilities with the vision of NEP.

On the occasion of the Foundation Day, a newly constructed state-of-the-art conference hall was inaugurated by Sri Hemanta Choudhury, officer on special duty to the Hon'ble Chief Minister. In his ~~support~~ address, he assured support for strengthening the necessary infrastructure after proper discussion with the chief minister and extending cooperation to integrate skill enhancement course curriculum with conventional education system.

Several councillors and social workers from the Jalukbari Legislative Constituency were present. All attendees expressed heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the teachers, principal and governing body for their dedicated efforts towards academic excellence, intellectual growth and infrastructural development.

The celebration not only honored the past achievements but also ignited fresh inspiration among the entire academic community to work collectively toward responsible, skilled and visionary youth for the future.
