Report on One-Day Workshop "Moral and Ethical values in Election to Student Council"

A one-day workshop on the theme "Moral and Ethical values in Election to Student Council" was organized by Election Committee of West Guwahati Commerce College on 11th October 2025 in the Conference Hall at 2:00 pm. The workshop was specifically conducted for the students who had applied for various Portfolios in the upcoming student council elections. Faculty members from different departments were also present to lend support and engage in the discussions.

The event was graced by Dr. Dadul Dewri, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Pub Kamrup college, Baidhata Chariali, Kamrup, Assam, who was invited as the resource person. Dr. Dewri delivered an insightful and thought-provoking session, focusing on the importance of upholding moral integrity and ethical conduct during the election process.

During the interactive session, candidates had the opportunity to ask questions and share their views, leading to a meaningful dialogue on how elections should serve as a platform for responsible leadership rather than mere competition. Faculty members also contributed by sharing their perspectives on the role of ethics in student governance.

The workshop concluded with a vote of thanks by Miss Barasha Sarma, Member of Election Committee, acknowledging Dr. Dewri for his valuable insights and the participants for their enthusiastic involvement.
